Seeking Sports Trainers

West Brunswick Amateur Football Club are currently seeking a Head Trainer and Junior Sports Trainers for their Australian Rules Football teams. This is an exciting opportunity for paid experience in an amateur sporting club, with a strong emphasis on community and progressive values.

Sports Trainer

As a trainer you will be responsible for strapping and massage, and you will gain experience in game day preparation and acute injury assessment and management. These positions are ideal for physio, osteo or exercise science students as well as people with an interest in sports massage or sports medicine (hours can count towards practical hours as part of study). In-house training and ongoing support will be provided. Home games will be played from Ransford Oval Brunswick and away games at various locations around metropolitan Melbourne.

You will be expected to, depending on availability:

- Attend match day (Saturday) and training (Tuesday & Thursday) for the duration of the season (April - August)
- Complete both Level 1 Sports Trainer and Basic First Aid courses by April 2024.

Head Trainer

As Head Trainer, you will be expected to perform the above listed duties, as well as be responsible for:

- Rostering shifts and managing timecards for the trainer team,
- Ordering of stock (tape etc)
- Liaising with the committee/coaches on any matters that may relate to trainers team

Competitive remuneration is available, and is negotiable depending on experience.

To express your interest in these exciting opportunities, please email your c.v. and any other relevant information to westbrunswick@gmail.com
